☞ As the Public Documents contained in the following publication cannot but have a tendency to refute the charges againſt Mr. Jefferſon, by Mr. Simms and Mr. Powell, in their reſpective publications on the ſubject of the enſuing Election: The Editor of the COLUMBIAN MIRROR AND ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, in whoſe paper the ſaid publications firſt appeared, is requeſted to give this a place. THE AUTHOR.

From the Richmond and Mancheſter Advertiſer.

MR. PLEASANTS,

I view with equal pity and contempt the feeble though reiterated attempts of certain individuals amongſt us to injure the public character of a man, who is as eminently ſuperior in point of talents and liberality to his deſpicable calumniators, as he has been remarkable for his faithful and beneficial diſcharge of thoſe public truſts which have been, without interruption and with great political diſcernment, confided to him during the laſt twenty years of his life.

Amongſt the inſtances above alluded to, is an addreſs to John Mayo, Eſq. under the ſignature of a "Freeholder," dated in James City and publiſhed in Mr. Davis's laſt paper, as remarkable for its impudence as its calumny, and for its being in every reſpect unworthy the notice of the character which it is intended to wound; but if ſuch malignant attempts ſhould remain entirely unnoticed, although they conſiſt of nothing but impudent aſſertions and conjectures, founded on miſrepreſentation and abſurdity, they might have a very ſerious public effect in deterring our moſt capable and deſerving citizens from accepting thoſe public offices, which while they excite envy from the honor and emolument which ought to be attached to them, at the ſame time require from ſuch citizens thoſe ſacrifices of private quiet which can only be compenſated by a conſciouſneſs of having deſerved well of their country and by meeting its approbation.

I ſhall in making ſome obſervations upon the reaſons given by this ſapient freeholder againſt the appointment of Mr. Jefferſon to be Preſident of the United States, purſue him in his own method and enquire 1ſt. For his proofs of Mr. Jefferſon's want of firmneſs for the ſtation? Is it to be found in his correſpondence with Mr. Hammond, the Britiſh miniſter, or with Mr. Genet, the French miniſter? Who will dare to pronounce that if the helm of the political ſhip had been entruſted to Mr. Jefferſon during the laſt four years, it would not have arrived, with equal ſafety and with as little damage, at its preſent advantageous haven? From whence can proof be had to the contrary?

2d. How does the freeholder get his information that the political opinions of the Preſident and Mr. Jefferſon are at variance? Does his appeal to our belief as to the adminiſtration of the government of the United States, prove the truth of his aſſertion? Who will undertake to ſay that the zeal of Mr. Jefferſon for the happineſs and proſperity of the people of the United States is not equal to that of the Preſident? And with his talents and experience, is there any room to believe that the good effects of his zeal muſt be entirely loſt in the want of his perfect coincidence with the political opinions of the Preſident, admitting them to be at variance? But

3d. "The moſt active ſupporters of Mr. Jefferſon have been the moſt conſtant and avowed oppoſers of George Waſhington—they revilers and calamniators of that great man, and their efforts appear to have been pointed to drive him from office to make room for their favorite." This to be ſure is a curious reaſon for objecting to Mr. Jefferſon's appointment. An objection to the Preſident (if he thought proper to continue in office) becauſe his friends wiſh that he would do ſo in excluſion of all others, would be equally conſiſtent. I am very certain that if Mr. Jefferſon has friends who are enemies of the Preſident, it is far from being his wiſh that his friends ſhould be the enemies of the Preſident. But I muſt again call upon the Freeholder for proof of the fact, that the friends of Mr. Jefferſon have been the revilers and calumniators of the Preſident? Amongſt my limited acquaintance I know a very conſiderable number who are warm friends to both the gentlemen, and I have reaſon to believe they will continue ſo, be the event of the enſuing election what it may. The,

4th Reaſon for objecting to Mr. Jefferſon's appointment to be Preſident is "that he deſerted his poſt of Secretary of ſtate with a full knowledge of the danger which threatened the peace of his country both within and without." I know not the motive which induced his reſignation, but until the proofs of his want of firmneſs, which I have already called for, are exhibited, I ſhall aſcribe his retirement from office to very different principles. He had ſerved four years in an office of importance which a number of his fellow citizens would expect in rotation as their rights, from their known abilities to execute its duties. Truth and Juſtice might as well therefore ſuppoſe (for it is but ſuppoſition at beſt) that he retired from motives which if known would more probably excite additional eſteem and reſpect, than cenſure. I approve heartily of his conduct, from the example which he ſet to others, who have alſo ſince retired.

But this wiſeacre of a Freeholder has other reaſons for objecting to Mr. Jefferſon as Preſident, becauſe 5th "When he was Governor of Virginia in the year 1781, during the invaſion of the ſtate by a ſmall Britiſh force inſtead of defending the Commonwealth, at that alarming juncture, he voluntarily and ſuddenly ſurrendered his office and at that criſis his country was required to chooſe another Governor." This objection ſeems to imply that the Governor ought to have oppoſed his ſingle perſon to the whole army of the enemy, and that his failing to have done ſo as well as his reſignation after having ſerved two years ought to ſubject him to our preſent cenſure. Let us ſtate thoſe facts which will beſt ſerve to ſhew the ground upon which this pitiful objection is founded.

Richmond, April 19, 1781.

SIR,

Having received intelligence that the enemy are in motion up James river and that their veſſels were in ſight of Burwell's ferry yeſterday afternoon, and their deſtination being as yet unknown, we think it neceſſary to require you to aſſemble every man of your county able to bear arms immediately to repair, with proper officers and the beſt arms he has to Richmond, and that they do not wait to come altogether, but repair here in parties as they can be collected. Former experience will, I hope, induce a more prompt attendance on this occaſion. I am, &c.

TH; JEFFERSON.

The County Lieutenant of Henrico.

A ſimilar letter was wrote to the County Lieutenants of Prince George and Dinwiddie, with direction that the militia called for ſhould rendezvons at Peterſburg.

Richmond, April 19, 1781.

SIR,

It being poſſible that the enemy may be deſtined for this place, we have adviſed the Auditors, Treaſurer, Regiſter, Clerks of the Aſſembly, Chancery and General Court, the Clothier and Commiſſary of Naval Stores to prepare their papers, &c. for removal. The ſame is doing with the papers of the Council of War and the Navy Office.—As no perſons can do this but the Clerks of thoſe Offices, and their preſence with the papers will be neceſſary on their removal, you will be pleaſed to conſider them as permitted by me to attend to thoſe duties, and not to be embodied with the militia of the county.

I am, &c.

TH: JEFFERSON.

To the Treaſurer, Regiſter of the Land Office, Auditors, Commiſſioner of the Navy, Clerks of the Aſſembly, General Court, and Court of Chancery.

I certify, that the foregoing letters of Governor Jefferſon are truly copied from the Letter Book of the Council, and that from the 19th of April to the 2nd of June, the Governor, Mr. Jefferſon, was every day preſent in Council; that there appears to have been done ſuch a ſhare of public buſineſs, made neceſſary by the invaſion alluded to in the ſaid letters, as to require, during that time, the unremitted application of the Governor; that it appears from the Journal of the Council that on the 5th of June Mr. William Fleming alone attended as a member of the Executive at Staunton; that on the 12th, in the Houſe of Delegates aſſembled at Staunton, it was reſolved, That Thomas Nelſon, jun. Eſq. be appointed Governor or Chief Magiſtrate of the Commonwealth for one year, he having been ſo elected by joint ballot of both houſes of aſſembly.—That this reſolution was ſucceeded by the following:—Reſolved, That at the next ſeſſion of aſſembly, an enquiry be made into the conduct of the executive of this ſtate for the laſt twelve months.

Accordingly at the next ſeſſion of the General Aſſembly, in the Houſe of Delegates, November the 26th, 1781, on motion, the following reſolution paſſed:—Reſolved, That this Houſe will, on Wedneſday the 12th of December next, proceed agreeably to a reſolution of the 12th of June laſt, to enquire into the conduct of the executive of this ſtate, for the laſt twelve months, next preceding the ſaid reſolution, and that as well the information againſt the ſaid Executive, as their defence, be received and heard on that day.—An order ſucceeded, That a committee be appointed to ſtate any charges, and receive ſuch information as may be offered, reſpecting the adminiſtration of the Executive, of which the ſaid committee ſhall give notice, if any accuſation ſhould be made in writing to the members which compoſed the executive, within the time referred to.—The committee was compoſed of Mr. Baniſter, Mr. Tyler, Mr. Nicholas, Mr. Southall, and Mr. Morgan.

On the 30th of November, Mr. Jefferſon was elected a delegate to Congreſs.

On the 12th of December, Mr. Baniſter reported from the committee appointed to ſtate any charges and receive ſuch information as might be offered reſpecting the adminiſtration of the late Executive, that the committee did according to order convene for that purpoſe; and no information being offered on the ſubject matter of the ſaid enquiry, except that ſome rumours prevailed, which appeared to the committee to have been the cauſe of the original order of the 12th of June, directing the ſaid enquiry; that the committee had come to a reſolution thereupon which he read in his place, and afterwards delivered at the Clerk's table where the ſame was again twice read and agreed to by the houſe as followeth, Reſolved, That it is the opinion of this committee that the ſaid rumours were groundleſs.

A motion was then made that the houſe do come to the following reſolution:

Reſolved, That the ſincere thanks of the General Aſſembly be given to our former Governor, Thomas Jefferſon, Eſquire, for his impartial, upright, and attentive adminiſtration of the powers of the executive whilſt in office: Popular rumours gaining ſome degree of credence by more pointed accuſations, rendered it neceſſary to make an enquiry into his conduct and delayed that retribution of public gratitude ſo eminently merited; but that conduct having become the object of open ſcrutiny, tenfold value is added to an approbation founded on a cool and deliberate diſcuſſion. The aſſembly wiſh, therefore, in the ſtrongeſt manner, to declare the high opinion of Mr. Jefferſon's ability, rectitude, and integrity, as Chief Magiſtrate of this Commonwealth, and mean, by thus publicly avowing their opinion, to obviate all future, and to remove all former, unmerited cenſure.

And the ſaid reſolution being read a ſecond time was, on the queſtion put thereupon, agree to by the houſe, nemine contradicente.

Given under my hand at Richmond, this 12th day of October, 1796.

SAMUEL COLEMAN,

Who in the year 1781 was an aſſiſtant to Mr. John Beckley, then Clerk to the Houſe of Delegates, and who is now aſſiſtant Clerk to the Council,

It is hardly requiſite to make any comment upon the foregoing certificate. It muſt flaſh confuſion to the calumniators of Mr. Jefferſon. From it may be gathered that this great man after acting two years as Chief Magiſtrate of this commonwealth, in times more difficult than any which Virginia had to encounter during the whole war with Britain; after having been worn down with inceſſant fatigue in the execution of the duties of his office, he wiſhed relief; add to that fatigue too the unmerited cenſure with which he was loaded by many who were intereſted in the continuance of the ſeat of Government at Williamſburgh (probably the reſidence of our James City Freeholder) in effecting the removal of which to Richmond, it was ſuppoſed he was the principal inſtrument—and who can be ſurpriſed, at, or view as a cauſe of cenſure his deſire of obtaining a reſpite from public office? Short indeed was his relief. Soon was he again called upon by his country to fill one of the moſt important offices in its gift—In the execution of its duties did he not ſo conduct himſelf as to merit the warmeſt approbation of his country, whoſe confidence in him became ſo fixed as to induce it to truſt him, with the management of its moſt important intereſts at the court of France, as its Ambaſſador? and what was the language of our General Aſſembly to him on his return; Congratulation for his ſafe arrival—thanks for his public ſervices—and aſſurance of public eſteem. Here I might reſt, conſcious that I can add nothing which is neceſſary to encreaſe the eſteem of my fellow-citizens. But my talk is not yet complete—there remains a 6th and a 7th charge, to which I ſhall only obſerve that the former depends entirely upon what the Freeholder has heard and believes, and the latter is made upon juſt ſuch principles as influenced thoſe who inſtituted the holy inquiſition, which to the diſgrace of humanity yet exiſts in ſome of the countries in Europe, where I feel an inclination to ſee our Freeholdtr compelled to reſide, as a proper puniſhment of his malignant diſpoſition.

Since writing the above I have been credibly informed, that one principal inducement to Mr. Jefferſon's reſignation, was his obtaining information that an impeachment would be proſecuted againſt him on account of his conduct whilſt in office.

As his continuance in office would protract ſo intereſting an enquiry (the governor not being impeachable whilſt in the execution of his official duty) he choſe to requeſt that he might not again be elected.

The brig Catharine, arrived laſt evening, towed into port the ſchooner Ann and Maria, of Oxford, James Caulthard, maſter; and owned by Henry Ennales, of Dorcheſter. The cargo is damaged—but no lives loſt.

MR. PRICE,

The following is an extract of a letter from an Engliſh emigrant now in Alexandria, to his friend in Europe—which, as it contains ſundry remarks relative to the manners, population, religion, &c. of this place and its vicinity, is ſubmitted to the peruſal of the public.

The uncommon ſtrain of truth, which accompanies every remark makes them highly intereſting; and as they were publiſhed in England for the information of ſuch as might be diſpoſed to emigrate to America, I am of opinion they will not be unentertaining to Americans in general. I alſo intend to favour the public with extracts from ſeveral others on the ſame ſubjects, but particularly from ſome by T. B. now of Alexandria, having lately ſeen, from Europe, a ſmall volume conſiſting entirely of this ſpecies of literature.

AN ALEXANDRIAN.

The reaſon of my ſettling here is, that I could not find any thing to do worth my while at Waſhington, for it has more the appearance of a deſart than a City! There are not more than forty good houſes in the whole place, and thoſe not finiſhed. They inform me the reaſon why it is at ſuch a ſtand, is, on account of ſome of the managers having been ſo roguiſh as to embezzle the money entruſted by the States to their charge.

Three fourths of Alexandria are Scotch, and they are unanimous in aſſiſting each other from the St. Andrew's Society which has an able fund. The prevalent religion is the preſbyterians—there are alſo anabaptiſts, methodiſts, and epiſcopalians, but all their meetings are ſorrily attended. The preſbyterians are the moſt orderly and reſpectable, and they are dignified with the bell which ſerves for all the reſt of the places of worſhip. Our miniſter's name is Dr. M——— he has great reſpect for the mother country people, but particularly the Scots, as he is one of our country himſelf.

J. B.

FROM THE GAZETTE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Mr. FENNO,

THE paper which has been publiſhed in the Gazette, purporting to be an official note from the French miniſter for foreign affairs, to M. Barthelemy, ſeems to have excited much alarm among the merchants concerned in trade with the Britiſh dominions. Whether the note is authentic or not, is as yet unknown: but one thing is certain, that there exiſts no ſuch order of the Britiſh government, as the note repreſents to have been juſt given, and which is ſtated as the immediate cauſe and juſtification of the reſolution of the directory, reſpecting neutral veſſels.

October 15, 1796.

A late London paper obſerves, that the wiſe line of conduct purſued by the Preſident of the United States, in promoting the late treaty with this country, and refuſing his ſupport to the propagation of Jacobinical principles in America, has produced a long letter from citizen Paine, who has thought proper to cenſure General Waſhington for checking what he terms "The glorious career of equality."

FROM EUROPE.

By the remarkable quick paſſage of the Jane, arrived at New-York in 19 days from London, we have the following intelligence:

That in an engagement between Jourdan and the united forces of the Archduke Charles and Gen. Wartenſleben, (about the 20th of Auguſt) the former loſt 7000 men and 30 pieces of cannon—

That, on the other hand, Moreau, at the ſame time, took 17 pieces of cannon and 2000 priſoners—

That Mantua, in Italy, is ſtill blockaded; on the 24th of Auguſt the French killed, took and wounded 500 and forced the whole garriſon to retire within the wall—

That T. Greenville (not the ſecretary) is to go to Paris on a pacific commiſſion—

That a loan of 30 millions was contemplating—but private accounts ſay, it failed, and recourſe was immediately had, a la Francais, to levying Contributions.—

That the Spaniſh Ambaſſador was about leaving England—

That by the French and Spaniſh offenſive and defenſive Alliance, the latter is to furniſh 15 1ſt rate men of war 18,000 foot, and 6000 light troops—particularly againſt England—which is conſidered as a Spaniſh declaration of war. This Treaty is a renewal of the old Family Compact, on the New Principles—and is ſigned at Madrid, but was not yet ratified at Paris—

That the Pruſſian troops have orders to act againſt any armed body, that may enter Franconia, except the French.

But the following, from the London Telegraph of the 13th of September, will be of ſtill greater importance to an American reader:

A letter, of which the following is a copy, containing commercial information of much importance, was on Saturday morning tranſmitted by the American Ambaſſador, Mr. King, to the American Conſul, Mr. Johnſon.

"18, Baker-Street, Sept. 10.

"DEAR SIR,

"I have juſt received a letter from Mr. Monroe, dated Paris, Aug. 28, in which he informs me, that in conſequence of the publication in the gazettes, of the letter from the Miniſter of Foreign Affairs to M. Barthelemi, the Ambaſſador at Baſle, he had applied for information, whether orders were iſſued for the ſeizure of neutral veſſels, and had been informed that no ſuch order was iſſued, and further, that none ſuch would be iſſued, in caſe the Britiſh Government did not authorize the ſeizure of our veſſels.

"Suppoſing that this information might be uſeful to thoſe concerned in our commerce, I have not delayed communicating to you, and wiſh you to be ſo obliging as to let it be known to ſuch of our countrymen concerned in commerce as you may meet with.

I am, &c.

"RUFUS KING.

JOSHUA JOHNSON, Eſq.
Conſul to the U. S. A.

A gentleman in New-York (ſays a paper of that city) has received a letter from Paris, dated the 19th of Auguſt, which informs in ſubſtance, that the late decree of the French government reſpecting neutral veſſels, was ſuſpended and probably would never be carried into execution—that the depredations on the American commerce by French cruizers in the Weſt-Indies, was unauthoriſed by the government, and done without their knowledge, and that ſatisfaction would be made for the loſſes thereby ſuſtained.

A gentleman who came paſſenger in the James ſaw at Deal a London paper of the 17th Sept. (but could not procure it to bring with him) which ſtated, that an order had been iſſued by government for ſeizing the Spaniſh veſſels in England, and alſo converſed with a cuſtom-houſe officer, who mentioned that he had been actually engaged in the buſineſs.

MARRIED.—On Tueſday evening, Mr. DAVID EASTON, merchant, to Mrs. S. CRAIK.

On Thurſday Evening, Mr. GEO: BEARD to Miſs ELIZABETH HUNTER, both of Fairfax county.

MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not leſs than ſeven, or more than eleven years, from the firſt day of September next. The Mill houſe is 42 by 40 feet, three ſtories high, built with ſtone, and has in it 3 pair of French burr ſtons, two overſhot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and neceſſary for carrying on the buſineſs with diſpatch, and at as little expence as poſſible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where crafts of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Waſhington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This ſituation aided by a ſufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extenſive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the diſtance to it being from 8 to 10 miles leſs, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premiſſes a large ſtone Cooper's ſhop, a ſtone granery and a commodious Miller's houſe. At the landing aforeſaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardneſs and probably will be finiſhed the enſuing Fall.

There are alſo on the premiſes a Brewery and Diſtillery built with ſtone, in them are three ſtills, two coppers or boilers, with every neceſſary article, all new, and in good order, and ſufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Diſtillery, upon a very extenſive plan. This property I will rent for the ſame term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premiſes, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with eaſe and diſpatch, is an immenſe quantity of building and foundation ſtones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with eaſe, the ſtone taken from theſe quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other ſtone brought to it. I will rent theſe quarries ſeperately or together as may beſt ſuit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill' is a ſtone Dwelling houſe, large enough for the accommodation of a family, alſo, a kitchen, Dairy, ſmoke houſe, &c. and a garden encloſed, and in cultivation, the ſoil of which is equal in goodneſs to any in this ſtate. I will alſo rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Diſtillery is a Smith's ſhop in which is a complete ſet of Blackſmith's tools, which I will alſo rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blackſmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the ſtone quarries, I will ſell, three crafts which were built for the purpoſe of carrying ſtone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate poſſeſſion will be given, for terms apply to the ſubſcriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Diſtillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and muſt be ſo returned, at the expiration of the leaſe or leaſes.

PHILIP RICHARD FENDALL.

Alex. Auguſt 16.

Valuable Property FOR SALE.

THE Subſcriber will ſell a Leaſe of between 4 and 5 years of the Houſe he now occupies, together with a large ſtable for 12 horſes, &c.

To a perſon who has frequented the houſe it would be unneceſſary to ſay that the character of the UNION TAVERN is well eſtabliſhed—that in every point of view it ſtands on nearly equal grounds with the beſt in regard to nautical cuſtom its ſituation is highly preferable to any in Alexandria.

Preſuming a purchaſer would intend purſuing the avocation he now follows, he can accommodate him with every article of Houſehold and Kitchen Furniture, neceſſary to a well regulated houſe and extenſive cuſtom.

Poſſeſſion may be had on the firſt of December. The terms of payment will be made eaſy. JOHN GADSBY.
